Commissioners and Administrator Discussion	Administrator Garcia received an email from an individual expressing interest in being considered for an Airport Authority Board seat. The Commissioners discussed having phone interviews with the six individuals that have expressed interest next week some time.
	The County Engineer sent an email regarding GIS mapping. There was a question last week regarding who would be making changes to the 911 mapping when needed now that Brian Edwards has retired. At this time The engineer's office can handle this task until a decision is made on a vendor and what we need from the vendor.

Board of Elections	Sharie Chagnon – Board of Elections. Sharie came in for her regular meeting with the Commissioners. Sharie had their board meeting this morning and the Elections Board would like to meet with the Commissioners in the Spring to discuss the new office. They are really not interested in moving the office. The Commissioners noted there is not the space at the current location to expand the current building for the needs of the office. She is getting ready for the March election. They are working on getting a focus group together with poll workers, specifically to discuss provisional voting. They want to make sure they have more consistency in the precincts. Local primary shouldn't be too bad.	Sharie Chagnon - Director
