How can I register to vote?

You are qualified to register to vote in Ohio if you meet all the following requirements:

1. You are a citizen of the United States.
2. You will be at least 18 years old on or before the day of the General Election.
3. You will be a resident of Ohio for at least 30 days immediately before the election in which you want to vote.
4. You are not incarcerated (in jail or in prison) for a felony conviction.
5. You have not been declared incompetent for voting purposes by a probate court.
6. You have not been permanently disenfranchised for violations of election laws.

If you meet those requirements, follow this link: voteohio.gov to register online.

If you do not wish to register online, you may visit any public library, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Sandusky County Treasurer's office or Job and Family Services. You may also contact our office and we will send you a registration form. If you prefer, you can register in person in our office.

How do I change my political affiliation?

Per Ohio law, you are only able to change your political affiliation (political party) by voting in a Primary Election. At that time, you will simply request the party ballot of your choice. Per the Ohio Secretary of State:

DETERMINING PARTY AFFILIATION An elector is considered to be a member of a political party if they voted in that party's primary election within the preceding two calendar years, or if they did not vote in any other party's primary election within the preceding two calendar years. Each board of elections must enter voting history and update party affiliation following each primary election.
